★ ChotaDAM [T/N: An Elden Ring 2022 Crack defense specialist who witnessed the beta test. He is considered by the fans as a source of reliable information about the game] "I was very shocked when I played the actual game. Until the PvP, I thought it was going to be a game you could just play with your friends. However, after I actually became a player who played the game and actually had a PvP fight with others, I got to admit, the game was pretty great. There are a lot of things that I like about this game and some of them have been proven in the game's beta test. I believe that this game is going to be a very promising RPG that looks like it will be released soon. Furthermore, the PvP system seemed to be very balanced and fun. It's pretty competitive against other players, and I was able to get a better understanding of how the equipment and weapons would play out against other players in PvP." ★ Kartinger [T/N: An Elden Ring gaming analyst who read the English version of the game's official website] "The game is very rich and the world is very vast. I like the idea that you could travel between different maps in order to complete your objectives. I can feel the emotional tug with which you would want to fight against your enemies, the gripping atmosphere with which you would fight against your enemies in PvP, and the deep fantasy genre with which the game looks. All in all, I believe that this is another great RPG to look forward to." ★ Interview with SO-NET [T/N: A representative of So-Net who appeared in the beta test to chat with the fans] "The battle system is very neat and fun, and the world you're in is very unique. The RPG genre is not overused, and I've never played a new RPG other than Tobal, which is indeed a fun RPG. I have fond memories of that game, and I feel that we should work to create a new game that will be just as entertaining." ★ Aynia [T/N: A Tobal fan who also participated in the beta test] "I really like the idea that bff6bb2d33
